Fewer Walls, More Bridges
Doubling Down on Transatlantic Climate Cooperation

06 July

15:00 - OPENING EVENT
Patrick Graichen - State Secretary BMWK
Canadian Representative - (tbc)
Andrew Light - Assistant Secretary for International Affairs, U.S. Department of Energy
Rick Smith, President of the Canadian Climate Institute
Sabine Nallinger - Managing Director Stiftung KlimaWirtschaft

Discussion

16:30 - Harnessing Financing Mechanisms for Loss and Damage
Center for American Progress + adelphi

17:00 - Canadian and German Perspectives: Lessons learned from harmonizing federal carbon pricing policy
ICAP + Canadian Climate Institute

18:00 - Canadian Climate Diplomacy and G7 Outcomes with ADM
Catherine Stewart - Environment and Climate Change Canada
Polis180 + adelphi

19:00 - Getting The Last Mile to Net Zero
Dortmund, Pittsburgh, Vancouver

20:30 - Environmental and Climate Justice: What can Germany learn from North American Indian communities?
Dina Gilio-Whitaker

07 July

15:00 - Governance Alignment of Embedded Carbon Initiatives
E3G + adelphi

16:00 - Opportunities for Transatlantic Cooperation on Industrial Decarbonization
Climate Advisers + Atlantic Council + Stiftung KlimaWirtschaft

16:15 - US Climate Policy Outlook: Balancing Energy Security and Climate Priorities and the Importance of the Midterm Elections
Climate Advisers

17:15 - Governance Alignment of Embedded Carbon Initiatives
E3G + adelphi

17:15 - Critical Minerals From a Transatlantic Perspective
Wilson Center

08 July

15:00 - Water Diplomacy 4.0: Process Matters
Fulbright Germany

16:00 - Water Diplomacy 4.0: Process Matters
Fulbright Germany

16:15 - Water Diplomacy 4.0: Process Matters
Fulbright Germany

17:15 - Water Diplomacy 4.0: Process Matters
Fulbright Germany

REGISTER HERE